

Simons Postdoctoral Fellowship at the University of California, Berkeley, 2010-13

The Simons Foundation has awarded the University of California at Berkeley a Postdoctoral Fellowship in High Energy Theoretical Physics for the three-year period of Fall 2010 to Summer 2013. To apply for this position, please apply for the Berkeley postdoc positions in theoretical particle physics on the Academic Jobs Online website at <https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo>. All eligible applicants will automatically be considered for the Simons Foundation Fellowship. Applicants with interests in all areas of particle theory and early universe cosmology will be considered.

Applicants must receive their PhD in the academic year preceding their appointment. There is no further eligibility restriction, on nationality or any other basis. The first year salary is $65,000, and in addition there is a $7,000 per year research fund, to be used at the discretion of the Fellow. More information about the Simons Foundation and the Fellowship Program can be found at <http://simonsfoundation.org>.
